

HOW TO USE THIS RESOURCE

The Amira Readerboards are a fun, flexible way to encourage, motivate, and celebrate reading with Amira. These posters help spotlight top readers while building excitement around consistent, high-quality reading practice.

To get started:

- Print the Weekly Readerboard and laminate it or place it in a clear sleeve.
- Use a dry erase marker to update it throughout the week.

Decide how you will use the Readerboard:

- Choose who you want to list (eg. individual students, classes, or grade levels).
- Choose what you want to track (eg. minutes or stories read with Amira).

Update the Readerboard:

- Throughout the week, review Amira usage.
- Write the top readers and their scores on the board.
- Display the Readerboard in a visible classroom or school space.

Celebrate reading success:

- Recognize top readers during class or school announcements.
- Consider awarding the BONUS certificate on page 23 or small incentives (such as these Spot keychains and stickers) at the end of each week.

Readers are leaders—celebrate progress and participation with Amira!
